MARGARET MEAD FILM AND VIDEO FESTIVAL

Linthicum Hall Room 200

Wednesday, October 6 - Wednesday, November 10, 6:30 pm

The American Museum of Natural History's Margaret Mead Film & Video Festival is the longest-running showcase for international documentaries in the United States. The Festival screens documentaries that increase our understanding of the complexity and diversity of the peoples and cultures that populate our planet. The Festival has evolved with the times while maintaining its important history and has grown steadily to reflect the ever-evolving incarnations of storytelling, technology, and growing access to communities near and far through a number of narrative styles. Over 18 countries and a variety of cultures are depicted in the 6 films and videos screened this fall. Each video will be introduced by a member of the Anthropology faculty at Towson University. Visit <http://www.towson.edu/cla/events> for more information.

Admission is free.

THE KINGDOM OF DRUMS AND BELLS: THE MUSIC OF MICHAEL COLGRASS

Center for the Arts Harold J. Kaplan Concert Hall

Wednesday, October 13, 8:15 p.m.

Pre-concert discussion with the Michael Colgrass at 7:30 p.m.

The Towson University New Music Ensemble and Department of Music present an evening recognizing Pulitzer-Prizewinning Composer, Michael Colgrass' music. The program will include Percussion Music for Percussion Quartet, Variations for Four Drums and Viola, and A Flute in the Kingdom of Drums and Bells. Michael will be available to sign copies of his recently-published memoir, Adventures of an American Composer following the concert. Featuring Sara Nichols, flute; Megan Fergusson, viola, Patrick Roulet, percussion, and the Towson University Percussion Faculty quartet with guest percussionist Bill Solomon.

Tickets: $14 general admission; $8 seniors; $6 students

THE MISANTHROPE BY MOLIÈRE

Center for the Arts Mainstage Theatre

Thursday, October 21, 7:30 p.m. Preview

Friday, October 22 and Saturday, October 23, 8 p.m.

Sunday, October 24, 2 p.m.

Wednesday, October 27 and Thursday, October 28, 7:30 p.m.

Friday, October 29 and Saturday, October 30, 8 p.m.

The thin veneer of celebrity and status is hilariously satirized in Molière's timeless comedy The Misanthrope. Centered around Alceste, a man quick to criticize the faults of others yet blind to his own, this contemporary translation of the French classic pokes fun at the hypocrisy of fame and "white lies of social life."

Tickets: $15 general admission; $8 students

SKIN AND BONES: USING SCIENCE TO SOLVE CRIMES

Saturday Science Series

Smith Hall Room 326

Saturday, October 23, 10 a.m. and noon

You've seen the crime scene investigator shows on TV explain how crimes are solved. Now hear how it is really done! This program will discuss the various techniques and tricks that are used today to solve both recent crimes and older ones from the cold case files. Dr. Kollmann will be sharing some unusual tales from her years as a Crime Scene Investigator with the Baltimore County Police Department.

Admission is free.

OUTCASTS UNITED: AN AMERICAN TOWN, A REFUGEE TEAM AND ONE WOMAN'S QUEST TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Potomac Lounge, University Union

Tuesday, October 19, 7-9pm

Luma Mufleh will speak about her life and experiences as coach of a soccer team of refugee boys from war-torn countries. The bestseller Outcasts United, by Warren St. John, recounts the story of this remarkable woman, the boys and their families, and the small southern town changed dramatically by refugee resettlement. Light refreshments will be served. Copies of the book will be available for purchase at the University Store.

Admission is free.

Anyone who has filing cabinets that are no longer needed, please contact the Chamber at 410-825-1144. We give space in the Chamber to house local community information and have run out of storage space! Thanks

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Towson Chamber of Commerce, Inc. and the Towson Garden Day Committee have donated over $4,000 in funds to renovate the benches that line the Towson Courthouse Gardens. Here are some of the before & afters! Our thanks go out to the County workers who spent many hours to rehabilitate these lovely additions to the Courthouse Gardens. Also, take a look at what's happening with Washington Avenue!!

Meet & Greet

The Meet & Greet at 7 West on Tuesday, September 28th, was a huge success. The Chamber entertained local community groups, government officials, Baltimore county employees and candidates running for office in the next election. We were pleased to see everyone interacting while enjoying the wonderful cocktails and appetizers.

We welcomed Dominick Murray, Deputy Secretary of Business & Economic Development for Governor Martin O'Malley, Congressman John Sarbanes, Representatives from the House of Delegates and the Baltimore County Council, Candidates for Baltimore County Executive, Kevin Kamenetz & Ken Holt and other Baltimore County dignitaries.

We were particularly pleased to bring together many of the candidates running for local office together with those who live and vote in this community..

We thank the wonderful 7 West Bistro & Grill for hosting this event and thank all those who attended, making the evening such a success. We will keep you informed of the next meet & greet!

Many have fond memories of dining or dancing at Peerce's Plantation in Phoenix, which closed in 2006. Newly christened, Peerce's Landing with owner Joseph Bivona of Signature Catering has renovated the space which still retains its characteristic charm. The re-opening of the restaurant is Monday, October 4th for dining. It can accommodate 250 for seated diners and up to 400 for cocktails and dancing. Please join him for this grand evening, for reservations and information please call: 410-252-7111
12460 Dulaney Valley Rd.

Love Local Maryland

LoveLocal Maryland (www.lovelocalmaryland.com) provides easy to use and self-manage, low cost web based tools – specifically design for Maryland small businesses. With LoveLocal, businesses can quickly and easily connect and engage customers, keeping them up to date and coming back. The tools are so easy to use a webmaster is not required so that updates and campaigns can be created as often as a business wants.

Businesses can create a high-impact website, email campaigns and social networking easily all from one location. Emails can be sent out with unlimited frequency. Businesses can create coupons and compelling announcements about their business and products/services, which their customers can share with their friends.

Businesses can, also, attach their preprinted marketing material to their website so they can give their customers a full presentation of their product and service offerings.

Even if a business has a website, it can link in and use the tools.

The tools are available for the cost of one lunch per month. The subscription cost for members of Towson Chamber of Commerce is $98/year and a one time $19 set up. This represents a $20 savings from the standard subscription. Use the registration code for Towson Chamber of Commerce to receive the discount.
