With winter behind us, you're chamber has been working hard to prepare for spring. The proceeds from our many and varied activities throughout the year and your yearly membership dues are being spent wisely. We are devoted to giving back to our community and making it a safe and beautiful place to live and do business.

The Chamber has allocated $4,300 toward the beautiful new banners (8 different designs) that grace our light poles, and we thank the Towson University Graphics Department for the striking designs. In the weeks to come, the Chamber has ordered and will be receiving 50 hanging baskets filled with flowers and greens. These lovely additions to our area are bought by the Chamber they are cared for by our full time beautification worker who maintains the watering and pruning and additionally keeps the streets clean from trash throughout the year. We recently repainted some of the green trash cans and replaced five lids. We just ordered two new lids for the recycle trash cans on Allegheny.

Our businesses have partnered with Pat France and Citizens on Patrol to start a Downtown Towson Citizens on Patrol. I want to thank all of you that have supported this project. Please let me know if you would like to get involved.

Spring brings 100's of students from TU to perform their bi-annual clean-up magic around town. They mulch over 60 tree wells, paint over graffiti and clean-up our alleys that we travel almost as much as we travel the streets.

Our new Lunch & Learn educational seminar series has started out with a bang. These monthly additions to our Chamber agenda are designed to be beneficial to our business community. Join us Friday, April 4th from 12-1pm, we promise it will be an hour well spent!

The Chamber has now become a large part of the 4th of July Parade committee. We are so thankful to have such a great group of new and not so new volunteers, and are excited to make this another wonderful parade.

We are so thankful to Baltimore County and BGE who have undertaken the process of upgrading all of the street and alleyway lights in and around Towson to make the area safe and well lit. We ask you, PLEASE take a walk around your building, make sure it is well lit. Criminals don't like the light!

PS—let's not forget the upcoming Towsontown Spring Festival, Towson Gardens Day, Feet on the Street Concerts and the Farmers Market! Towson Clean-up Day is scheduled for April 26th (7-3pm) and we would appreciate any volunteers!!

The day is designed to bring together Towson University students, community members and business owners to mulch tree beds, pick up trash, repaint areas with graffiti and generally make ready our town for Spring. This kind donation is much appreciated!

We send additional shout outs to Wayne Gioioso of Mid-Atlantic Properties, Inc. who will be loaning his crew and truck to pick up the mulch and Larry Taubman of Dulaney Plaza for always kindly loaning his employee Chris to drive the truck that roams the area collecting the filled bags of trash for our dumpster. ### The 10% rule of doing business in Towson

Make 10% of your expenditures stay in Towson

Just think what a 10% increase will do for the businesses in Towson. If a company grosses say $300,000.00 per year and they see an additional 10% or $30,000.00 that could mean hiring someone, expanding product lines, making their interior and exterior look better, etc. Positive for the Towson Environment.

TU's VP for student affairs wins county women's leadership award

Written by: Written by Jan Lucas

Deb Moriarty, vice president for Student Affairs, has been selected to receive the Baltimore County Commission for Women's 2014 LaFrance Muldrow Woman Making a Difference Award.

Moriarty, who joined Towson University's staff in 2004, is well known and admired for her commitment to the personal and leadership development of students as well as her concern for the vitality of the greater community.

Her efforts have significantly improved town-gown relations and elevated the importance of community engagement. Under her leadership during the past five years, Towson University has hosted multiple community-wide cleanup, community service days; created an Off-Campus Address Policy and Off-Campus Disorderly and Disruptive Behavior Policy, as well as hired Community Ambassadors to keep off-campus student residents accountable for their behavior; and established the University Relations Committee, a subcommittee of the Greater Towson Council of Community Associations to proactively work with the local community on town-gown relations.

In her letter of nomination, President Maravene Loeschke praised Moriarty for her "extraordinary contributions to the Baltimore County community. Throughout her personal and professional work she has led initiatives that not only welcome the greater community to campus, but also educate and prepare students to be responsible, engaged leaders beyond campus borders."

Bella Owens, president of the Baltimore County Commission for Women, told Moriarty the honor "speaks highly of how well you and your work have been perceived in the academic community and beyond. I am very proud to say that you are a valued citizen of Baltimore County, and with this recognition you will be joining a long list of accomplished women."

"I am completely surprised, excited and humbled to be recognized by the county based on a recommendation from those with whom I work on a day-to-day basis," Moriarty says. "Baltimore County is a great place to live and work. I'm honored to be recognized for trying to make a small difference for others who live and work here."

She will accept the award at the Baltimore County Commission for Women's 32nd Annual Awards Ceremony on March 27.

Further Acknowledgement for Deb Moriarty:

Deb was recognized as a Pillar of the Profession by the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators (NASPA). Annually, NASPA recognizes the contributions of those who have had significant impact on our profession. NASPA is an international association with over 15,000 members, which seeks to advance the practices of student affairs administrators.

Happy Spring!

Well. It looks like I may have jumped into Spring before it was time. We definitely have enjoyed a quick taste, only to be thrown back into the wintry mix. I believe I can safely say that this winter has finally come to an end and just in time for some of the Chamber's biggest activities!

The Chamber is juggling a myriad of happenings, planned for our communities, businesses and town.

It is time for cleaning, flowers, banners, fun family events and still informational seminars each month to keep the wheels turning.

Towson Chamber doesn't know what to get into next, so we have partnered with the 4th of July Committee to lend support for this year's event. And, we just launched our brand new interactive web-site for your information and convenience. Keep an eye on the calendar for all of our upcoming events!

Let us know if you can volunteer some of your time, remember, the Chamber is always working for you.

See you around Towson!

Nancy Hafford
