Towson Ghost Tours

October 16th - 17th

Join us for an evening stroll through Towson as we uncover the ghost stories, local legends, strange happenings, and pieces of history that refuse to stay buried.

Along the way, you'll hear tales connected to familiar places you may have walked past without ever knowing the stories hiding behind them.

Whether you're a history lover, a paranormal enthusiast, or just looking for something different to do this fall, Towson Ghost Tours offers a spooky new way to experience downtown. Space is limited, so grab your ticket join us - if you dare!
